

LITIGATION SUPPORT

Mitigating uncertainty and risk and responding decisively to critical events is our customers' armour when navigating today's operational challenges.

By supplying discreet expert advice, we aim to equip our customers with the tools to manage and alleviate risk throughout the business lifecycle, using expert investigative skills and cutting-edge technology.

ITC's unique approach to investigations guarantees that customers receive the highest quality advice. We employ specialised and experienced investigators and leverage an extensive and established network of global experts to acquire hard-to-access intelligence and evidence. With these resources, ITC promises that all investigations will be conducted by experts in their field, ensuring the best quality advice and results.

SOLUTION OVERVIEW

Mis-managing high-stakes disputes leads to destructive outcomes, costing parties millions and even causing unrecoverable reputational damage. Taking advantage of investigations run by experienced investigators improves the odds of successful pay-outs, recovery of lost assets, and mitigates the risk of reputational damage.

ITC Secure offers comprehensive complex commercial litigation and international arbitration support services to help you navigate the complex and often challenging legal process, and achieve the best possible outcome. Our expert investigators are veterans in sourcing and analysing vital evidence and intelligence in support of litigation proceedings.

Our thorough and methodological approach ensures that all relevant evidence is accounted for and presented accurately. Through our investigative analysis we guide clients through issues related to legal proceedings, bringing essential evidence and intelligence to light, and providing clients with the best tools to manage a dispute.
